NCDD's 2016 winter seminar "Cannabis and Cars" was held in Santa Monica, California and attendance of attorneys from around the country was nearly record setting.

Santa Monica, CA (PRWEB) February 02, 2016 -- Over 170 attorneys and experts from across the country recently attended the National College for DUI Defense (NCDD) 2016 winter seminar "Cannabis and Cars" held in Santa Monica California, setting a near-record in attendance.

"This defense attorney seminar was one of the best seminars in NCDD history. Attendees commented that this seminar increased their skills in an important and emerging area of the law," said Lenny Stamm, Dean of the National College for DUI Defense.

The focus of the seminar was to educate DUI defense attorneys who represent drivers accused of impaired driving in cases involving cannabis and other drugs.

Held over a two-day span, presenters and topics included:

- George Bianchi - Cannabis and Impaired Driving Laws
- Robert LaPier - Drug Recognition Evaluations
- Manny Daskal - Defending a Marijuana DUI
- Fran Gengo - Statistical Validity of DRE
- Michael Kennedy Motions and Practice
- Ron Moore - Testing Issues for Cannabis
- Heather Harris - Forensic Drug Chemistry
- Janine Arvizu - Quality Laboratory Issues
- Steven Epstein - Legal Trends in Cannabis DUI Cases

In connection with the seminar, the National College for DUI Defense also added a free one-day seminar in order to educate public defenders in and around California.
