

Sinclair Law Urges Florida Motorcyclists to Learn the Law With New MotorcycleRights.com Site

Sinclair Law, respected Florida motorcycle injury law firm, urges Florida's motorcyclists to stay safe with help from new website MotorcycleRights.com.

Melbourne, FL (PRWEB) January 02, 2014 -- Every driver needs to have a good grasp of the laws governing vehicle usage in their state in order to stay safe. According to Sinclair Law, a personal injury law firm, motorcyclists are no different. Florida motorcycle lawyer Brad Sinclair, owner and sole practitioner of Sinclair Law, urges Florida's motorcyclists to become familiar with the law and their rights.

Stories of motorcycle accidents permeate the media and inspire fear and anxiety among Florida's drivers. According to recent reports, motorcycle fatalities have unfortunately increased in 14 out of the last 15 years. Florida also ranks third in the nation when it comes to motorcycle deaths, behind only California and Florida.

However, Brad Sinclair, who is also a motorcycle enthusiast, is working tirelessly to inform Florida's motorcyclists about the laws surrounding motorcycle use. "The more you know about motorcycle laws in Florida, the safer you'll be," Brad Sinclair says. "It's true that by simply riding a motorcycle, there is a greater chance of accident than otherwise. However, if Floridian motorcyclists can arm themselves with knowledge of the law, the chances of flying free and staying safe are much higher."

Aligned with his goal to educate drivers and motorcyclists about Florida's motorcycle laws, Sinclair has launched MotorcycleRights.com, a website that makes learning Florida's motorcycle laws simple. In his practice, Sinclair encounters individuals who are confused about motorcycle laws and often are not aware of their rights. "Motorcyclists, particularly in Florida, need to be aware of the laws and their rights prior to hitting the open road," says Sinclair.

As a Florida motorcycle injury lawyer, Sinclair knows firsthand that quality information and education can help motorcyclists stay safe on the roads. Florida's motorcyclists are encouraged to go to MotorcycleRights.com to learn more about the rights that motorcyclists have on the road, and to stay safe.
