New York, NY (PRWEB) December 10, 2015 -- Alex Figliolia Jr., Manager of Gotham Motorcycles, New York City's only Indian, Victory and Slingshot dealership, will be offering demonstrations of Victory's brand new electric motorcycle at their showroom at 364 Bay Street, Staten Island, NY 10301 beginning December 14, 2015.

The 2016 Victory Empulse TT has arrived on Staten Island and demonstrations are being offered at Gotham Motorcycles' showroom at 364 Bay Street, beginning on December 14, 2015. Gotham Motorcycles is one of only 80 dealerships around the country to offer this cutting edge electric motorcycle.

Said Alex Figliolia Jr., Manager of Gotham Motorcycles, "We are proud to announce that the Victory Empulse TT electric motorcycle has arrived on Staten Island and we will be offering demonstrations of this unique, all electric bike at our showroom beginning on December 14, 2015."

The Empulse TT is the first all electric addition to the Victory lineup delivering zero-emission output.

Says Alex Figliolia Jr. "This innovative motorcycle is powerful, It's capable of reaching 100 miles per hour. The Victory Empulse TT is totally street legal and features a sport bike-style aluminum beam-frame, an adjustable suspension, and aggressive brakes. It has everything a motorcycle lover wants in a bike with the added benefit of being good for the environment."

The Victory Empulse TT electric motorcycle was delivered just in time for the Progressive International Motorcycle Show at the Jacob Javits Center in Manhattan December 11-13, 2015. Gotham Motorcycles will have three booths at the show featuring Indian, Victory and Slingshot products.

Said Alex Figliolia Jr., "We are excited to be exhibiting at the Progressive International Motorcycle Show at the Javits Center this weekend and look forward to speaking to New Yorkers who are interested in alternative means of transportation. We believe that electric motorcycles will be the vehicle of choice for the millennial generation. We are excited to be the only dealership in New York City to offer demonstrations of the Victory Empulse TT."

Those wishing to test drive the Victory Empulse TT electric motorcycle can call Alex Figliolia Jr. at 718 447-0020 or visit the Gotham Motorcycles website at www.gothamsi.com
