TENTH season will see TEN races for the championship!

NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO

(April 2, 2016) The Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series has released its 2016 schedule and will once again host events in both southern Ontario and western New York. Ten points races plus the REVS Full Throttle Powersports RACE OF CHAMPIONS will make up the tenth season of the highly competitive sportsman drag racing series.

The TNTSS continues to offer .90 class racers one of the best payout structures in the industry - just like it always has - along with specialty awards and contingency postings at every race.

To celebrate the its tenth season, there are a few surprises planned including the $5000 BONANZA which will be held alongside the IHRA Summit Pro Am at Empire Dragway on August 19th.

The season will kick off at Toronto Motorsports Park with a double on Victoria Day weekend powered by Jan-Cen Motorsports.

Immediately following that will be the Memorial Day weekend double with a Friday night race on Lancaster's 1/8 mile and then a Saturday race on Empire's 1/4 mile -

Both of these with GUARANTEED $1000 to the winner thanks to Steve's Electric.

A Friday night race at Lancaster on July 15 tuned by Data Clutch will mark the mid-point of the season. Then another Canadian double at Toronto will round out July.

The $5000 to win BONANZA on August 19 at Empire will have a GUARANTEED payout with NO MINIMUM CAR COUNT required - presented by Roy and Tara Lister. For more info on the Bonanza, visit http://tntsuperseries.com/images/TNTSS-Bonanza-1200px_000.jpg.

The season will conclude with its first-ever Labor Day weekend New York double. Championship weekend presented by Sam LoVetro Automotive will be Friday night at Lancaster and then Saturday at Empire including the annual REVS Full Throttle Powersports RACE OF CHAMPIONS on Saturday September 3rd. The ROC continues to pay $1200/win with NO ENTRY FEE.
