Grapevine, TX (PRWEB) September 08, 2016 -- F&I Express continues to expand their aftermarket provider network with the addition of Mechanical Breakdown Protection, Inc. (MBPI), vehicle service contract provider. F&I Express has over 130 aftermarket F&I providers in their network – the largest in the industry.

F&I Express is known for streamlining the aftermarket F&I process for optimized efficiency. By moving product and pricing information online, their innovative technology gives all parties the instant online data access they want with simplicity and transparency.

For over 30 years, MBPI has built a reputation on administrative excellence, solid insurance underwriting, and long-term client relationships.

“With their goal of giving their customers quality vehicle service contracts along with the highest possible level of service, MBPI is a perfect fit in the F&I Express network,” said Brian Reed, President and CEO of F&I Express. “We look forward to building this valuable relationship with MBPI.”

Tom Leir, IT Director at MBPI, stated, “We are excited about the opportunity to grow this partnership with F&I Express, to help connect us to our existing and future dealer base.”

ABOUT MBPI

Mechanical Breakdown Protection, Inc. (MBPI) was established in 1981 in St. Louis, Missouri by James W. Orr, Jr. and Chick Bright. The purpose of MBPI is to design, market and administrate quality extended vehicle service contracts to the automobile industry. Much of MBPI’s success can be attributed to our original philosophy: to seek out select, quality dealers in targeted geographical areas, and provide the highest possible level of service to those dealers. MBPI encourages prospective customers to call satisfied dealerships for references on our vehicle service contracts. Or, call us directly at 1-800-325-7484. Our live operators and award-winning claims department will handle your call with efficient service so that you can “get back on the road” knowing that your vehicle is covered under a comprehensive vehicle service contract.
