Â Fall Into Fashion With Watches That Are Hot As Fire - Lambretta A Timeless Desire!

New York, NY (PRWEB) July 11, 2004 -- The lazy hazy days of summer are coming to an end. Fall is upon us and with the changing seasons come some vibrant colors and striking hues. Lambretta knows that people with classic fashion sense want unique accessories designed for modern times yet practical and fun. Lambretta Watches, rich in Italian heritage, are hitting the US market full force this autumn season with great new pieces that are sure to fulfill your desires.

Whether you plan on hiking or camping this season or staying local and commuting between work or school and those great fall parties, Lambretta's newest styles and colors are a fit for every fashionable wrist!

Some of the top favorites this season include:

Â Milio - The soft, round, bold speedometer design dates back 40 years. You can see and feel the Lambretta inheritance.

Â Jet Â Inspired by the Lambretta SX150 speedometer with an integrated digital chronograph in the lower dial

Â Classico - Polished Stainless Steel. Water resistant and slightly over sized.
