Hunt Transport Services, Inc., as the newest member of its board of directors, and J.B. Hunt renews support as Gold level sponsor. This release applies to women, trucking, transportation, logistics, leadership, sponsorship.

PLOVER, Wis. (PRWEB) November 27, 2017 -- The Women In Trucking (WIT) Association is pleased to welcome Rachel Christensen, vice president of intermodal operations at J.B. Hunt Transport Services, Inc., as the newest member of its board of directors. The board provides guidance for the 4,000-member, nonprofit association that focuses on engaging and supporting women in the transportation and logistics industry.

“I am very excited to be a part of Women In Trucking and enthusiastically support their efforts,” said Christensen. “I look forward to promoting the opportunities of a career in this field and educating others about the value add of female talent, both behind the wheel and in management, which is essential for the growth of the transportation industry.”

At J.B. Hunt, Christensen is responsible for leading all intermodal operations in the west region, which is made up of more than 1,300 drivers and 120 managers. She also serves as an advisor to J.B. Hunt’s employee resource group, Growing and Retaining Outstanding Women (GROW).

J.B. Hunt is actively involved in WIT. The company recently renewed its Gold Level Sponsorship for the fourth consecutive year to help the organization raise awareness of the need for more women in the transportation industry. Jodi Edwards, a driver for J.B. Hunt, shares her expertise as a member of the WIT Image Team.

“We are grateful to J.B. Hunt for sharing such talented individuals with Women In Trucking, and we’re thrilled to have Rachel on board,” said Ellen Voie, WIT president and CEO. “Her insights, experience and connections will be invaluable as we keep advancing toward our mission. Together, we’ll continue to encourage the employment of women in the trucking industry, promote their accomplishments and minimize the obstacles they face.”
