

Atlanta Bike Fest Expected to Attract Thousands of Motorcycle Enthusiasts for One of the Most Diverse Showings of Biker Comaraderie

This high energy celebration of bike culture will be held at the historic Lakewood Exhibition Center & Fairgrounds from July 14-17, 2005.

(PRWEB) January 10, 2005 -- Atlanta Bike Fest is a multi-faceted event that will include an indoor and outdoor vendor market featuring over 300 vendors selling parts and accessories, apparel, t-shirts, custom bikes and production motorcycles. Attendees will also enjoy demo rides, nonstop music, charity bike ride, educational panels, family fun, motorcycle give-aways, competitions, food, beer and more. Official Atlanta Bike Fest merchandise will also be sold.

Local bands will delight crowds with late afternoon concerts on the beach. Two of the buildings on this 100-acre property will be transformed into trendy night clubs and bars featuring a diverse selection of music ranging from country, to, jazz, to blues, to rock, to pop, to hip-hop.

On Lakewood Fairgrounds' 15 acre lake, the Celebrity Beach Volleyball Tournament and the Beach Basketball Challenge will offer a competitive atmosphere featuring nationally known celebrity motorcycle enthusiasts challenging grassroots motorcycle organizations.

The Miss Atlanta Bike Fest Pageant will feature classy biker babes from the Southeast Region. The twelve finalists will be on-site as will the Ms. Atlanta Bike Fest calendar and other novelty items.

Registration is available online. Four-day passes are available for $45 and include parking. One-day passes are $12.50 each. Group discounts are also available.
