

OneWheelDrive.Net Covers the Biggest Show You've Still Never Heard Of

Vancouver, B.C. (OneWheelDrive.Net) Feb. 14th, 2005 For the second year in a row OneWheelDrive.Net is bringing the Dealernews International Powersports Dealer Expo in Indianapolis, USA to the people. This is an industry only event, running from February 19th to 21st at the Indiana Convention Center and RCA Dome, and OneWheelDrive.Net will be on-hand to provide a glimpse of this year's latest gear and accessories well before they hit the showroom floors.

Vancouver, B.C. (PRWEB) February 16, 2005 -- Despite being a Dealer and Manufacturer only event the Powersports Dealer Expo still astoundingly claims to be the largest, most comprehensive trade show of its kind in the world for dealers, distributors and manufacturers of aftermarket powersports products.

Last year OneWheelDrive.Net took our readers into the inner sanctum of the industry for a preview of some of the hottest items of 2004. This year we're set to do it all over again, providing coverage for 2005's Powersports Dealer Expo to our readers and being your eyes and ears on the floor.

For those lucky enough to be attending, OneWheelDrive.Net's team is looking forward to meeting and talking with you. If you are a Powersports Expo attendee, and wish to arrange in advance for coverage, please contact OneWheelDrive.Net.
