Legend custom bike builder, Dave Perewitz, has confirmed his participation in the 2005 18th Annual Donnie Smith Invitational Bike Show on March 19th and 20th.

(PRWEB) March 15, 2005 -- Prior Lake, Minn. "Legend custom bike builder, Dave Perewitz, has confirmed his participation in the 2005 18th Annual Donnie Smith Invitational Bike Show on March 19th and 20th at St Paul's Rivercentre Exposition center.

Perewitz is showcasing several new bikes worth an excess of $300,000, exhibiting his entire apparel line, signing posters and autographing the Art of The Chopper book. "This is a down-home show because it's all about the bikes," explained Dave Perewitz. "Neil Ryan, the event promoter, is a regular bike guy and he provides a great stage for seeing these custom bikes. With Donnie being a local legend, it adds to the mystic of the show."

The Donnie Smith Invitational Bike Show not only pulls famed builders like Perewitz, magazine representatives from Easyriders, Ironworks, Bikernet, and Hot Bike are all scheduled to appear and report on the show.

"We are seeing a lot of crazy bikes being built by new builders out there; it's not practical but it really wows the crowd," commented Perewitz. "Guys like Donnie Smith and I are still building the stuff we do best—practical, custom and bullet-proof bikes that look good and can be ridden hard. We should see a little of everything here."

The Invitational hosts hundreds of custom and classic bikes, a huge swap meet and several hundred vendors including Drag Specialties, Biker's Choice, Custom Chrome, House of Kolor and many more. Tickets for the 2005 18th Annual Donnie Smith Invitational Bike Show are available online at www.donniesmithbikeshow.com through eBay's wholly owned subsidiary Paypal.
