

"The 5 Coolest Things", Hosted By Matt LeBlanc, Now On DVD

“The 5 Coolest Things” is an inside look at the world of professional motorcycle racing. Hosted by Matt LeBlanc (Friends, Joey) and starring some of the biggest names in racing.

(PRWEB) April 24, 2005 -- “The 5 Coolest Things” is an inside look at the world of professional motorcycle racing. Hosted by Matt LeBlanc (Friends, Joey) and starring some of the biggest names in racing, “The 5 Coolest Things” is full of great racing action, insights, and the humor inside the four most spectacular means of racing on two wheels.

Jeremy McGrath takes the viewers behind the scenes of Supercross in The 5 Coolest Things about Supercross. Next, Travis Pastrana explains and demonstrates the highs, lows and crashes in The 5 Coolest Things about Freestyle. In The 5 Coolest Things about Road Racing, Nicky Hayden takes LeBlanc knee dragging at almost 200 MPH. Finally, in The 5 Coolest Things about Off-Road racing, GNCC Champion Rodney Smith and WORCS Champion Mike Kiedrowski take Matt through some of the most rugged terrain on the planet.

Each DVD is packed with real racing action, plus footage of the racers and Matt riding talking and hanging together. The 5 Coolest Things is available as individual DVD’s or as a boxed set of 4 Episodes available through retailers and dealerships across the country as of 4/ 19/05.

###

Contact Information

Andrew Wainrib
KCW PRODUCTIONS LLC
1949 2302600

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.