

All Traffic Solutions Awarded Sourcewell Contract #090122-ATS

All Traffic Solutions has been awarded Sourcewell contract #090122-ATS, making the buying process easier and more affordable for law enforcement and other agencies looking to purchase traffic safety and public messaging solutions.

CHANTILLY, Va. (PRWEB) February 09, 2023 -- All Traffic Solutions has been awarded cooperative purchasing contract #090122-ATS in the Law Enforcement Equipment category at Sourcewell. While the contract is in the law enforcement category, other government agencies and educational institutions are also able to utilize the contract.

Sourcewell is a self-sustaining government organization offering a cooperative purchasing program with more than 400 competitively solicited contracts to government, education, and nonprofit entities throughout North America. By utilizing Sourcewell contracts, participating agencies save time and money by capturing the buying power of more than 50,000 organizations.

All Traffic Solutions (ATS) is a leading provider of portable variable message and radar speed signs. ATS signs and trailers are made in the USA in compliance with the Buy American Act and Buy America Act. Since the company's inception in 2000, ATS has helped over 6,000 law enforcement agencies; schools and higher education institutions; state, local, and federal government agencies; and private sector organizations manage traffic, share information with the public, and improve overall safety. All Traffic Solutions was awarded Sourcewell contract #090122-ATS following a rigorous request for proposal process resulting in contracts that meet, or exceed, local procurement requirements.

All Traffic Solutions SpeedAlert radar message signs, InstAlert variable message signs, Shield radar speed signs, speed and message trailers, ALPR camera-compatible trailers, TraffiCloud® remote management software, and StatTrak vehicle counter classifiers can all be purchased using this contract.

“We are thrilled to have been awarded this contract with Sourcewell. They are widely used and well respected for their competitive solicitation process, only awarding about 3 percent of bidders on each contract. With this award we will be able to make purchasing easier for our customer base overall.” said Carrie Fedders, All Traffic Solutions' Vice President of Sales and Marketing.
