Presented by Sam LoVetro Automotive, the season opener brings new opportunities for some of the best sportsman racers in the country. In 2013, the popular sportsman drag racing series looks to have its best season ever.

Last year's event winner, Mark Herbold, will be there to defend his win. Mark, a three-time TNTSS event winner, makes some high mile per hour. The low slung 1994 Chevrolet Corvette is sporting a paint scheme and new wheels for 2013.

"We've opened our season at the Lancaster, New York facility since the series began," said Ted Barnes, TNTSS Director. "They run a very exciting program every Friday night and we're just pleased to be a part of it."

"We're also really excited to have Sam LoVetro Automotive presenting the season opener. The first event always has a strong car count and some very impressive competition."

About the Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series (TNTSS):

Since it began in 2006, the TNT Super Series has grown into one of the strongest, most competitive sportsman drag racing series in North America and has catapulted many competitors to success on the national and divisional stages.

The TNTSS is a self-governing organization with input from its teams. Based on NHRA's Super Street & IHRA's Hot Rod classes, competitors run on a 10.90 index in the 1/4 mile (7.00 in the 1/8 mile) and race for a guaranteed purse that pays back more than 100% of the racer's entry fees. The yearend points fund provides cash & prizes to the top eight finishers and the Series Champion receives a prize package worth over $4000.00.

The TNTSS is committed to providing the highest level of competition backed by solid media support to showcase its participants across North America. Events are contested at various drag racing facilities in southern Ontario and western New York and put on a spectacular show for the drag racing fan.
