TNT Super Series rolls into Elegant Builders Raceway Park this Friday

Autos Direct Of Buffalo presents the Friday night sportsman drag racing event!

LANCASTER, NEW YORK (June 25, 2013) The competitors in the Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series will return to Lancaster, New York's Elegant Builders Raceway Park this Friday June 28th. The event, presented by Autos Direct Of Buffalo, will be the first Friday night race of the 2013 season as two previous EBRP events had been cancelled due to rain.

Bill Elekes from Autos Direct Of Buffalo has been a strong supporter of the TNTSS for many years. "Bill has raced in our series since it began," said Ted Barnes, TNTSS Director. "He lost an engine in his Beretta going into the final at our last race so he will be bringing his Monza out of retirement this weekend!"

Last year, it was Chris VanBaalen getting his first win in the extremely competitive sportsman drag racing series against Roy Lister in a tight final round. Lister is another TNTSS 'regular' who hopes to return to competition this weekend.

With only three races completed in the 2013 season, someone to watch is TNTSS newcomer Ryan Boniferro. Currently sitting third in the overall points standings, Boniferro is only 42 points out of first place and has a stranglehold on The Balancing Act Rookie Of The Year Award.

Gates open at 3:00pm on Friday with qualifying at 5:00pm. Visit www.elegantbuildersraceway.com for full event details and regularly check www.tntsuperseries.com for everything you need to know about the best series in the country.

About the Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series (TNTSS):

Since it began in 2006, the TNT Super Series has grown into one of the strongest, most competitive sportsman drag racing series in North America and has catapulted many competitors to success on the national and divisional stages.

The TNTSS is a self-governing organization with input from its teams. Based on NHRA's Super Street & IHRA's Hot Rod classes, competitors run on a 10.90 index in the 1/4 mile (7.00 in the 1/8 mile) and race for a guaranteed purse that pays back more than 100% of the racer's entry fees. The yearend points fund provides cash & prizes to the top eight finishers and the Series Champion receives a prize package worth over $4000.00.

The TNTSS is committed to providing the highest level of competition backed by solid media support to showcase its participants across North America. Events are contested at various drag racing facilities in southern Ontario and western New York and put on a spectacular show for the drag racing fan.
