Press Release

NMDOT to host Public Information Meeting to discuss roadway improvement project for NM 209/N. Prince Street in Clovis

Clovis – The New Mexico Department of Transportation (NMDOT) will be holding a public information meeting on Tuesday, March 18th, 6:00 p.m. at Mesa Elementary School located at 4801 N. Norris Street in Clovis to discuss proposed improvements to the NM 209 corridor between the intersection of Llano Estacado Boulevard in Clovis and south of County Road 17 in Curry County.

This is the second public meeting for the project and will present a review of the project needs, the alternatives developed, and the initial evaluation of these alternatives. The alternatives will address the deteriorating roadway in the project area, inadequate pedestrian facilities, storm drainage, as well as the need for additional lanes or possible turn lanes and traffic signal options. Public comment will be solicited on the developed alternatives.

Anyone with questions or comments regarding this project may contact Sherri Holliefield, NMDOT Project Development Engineer, at (575) 525-7351; or Paul Zagone, Souder Miller & Associates, (575) 624-2400.
