Chesterfield Township, Michigan -- April 18, 2000 -- Construction is to begin on a new 28,340 square foot automotive dealership in Chesterfield Township, Michigan for Michael Johnson Chevrolet. The dealership, located on 23 Mile Road at I-94, is expected to be open for business in the fall of 2000.

The Garrison Company of Farmington Hills, Michigan is the design/builder of the dealership and Prizm Project Development, Inc. of Troy, Michigan is the construction manager.

The design of this new dealership was initially created by L+A Architects of Troy, Michigan, and is one of General Motor's "Brand Image 2000" dealerships being used as a prototype for Chevrolet dealerships nationwide. This design was developed to enhance product visibility and to establish a consistent Chevrolet dealer image.

The Garrison Company is a highly respected design/build firm that was established in 1954. The Garrison Company has provided industrial and commercial clients with services including planning, design, engineering and construction. Projects range from expansions and renovations, to new facilities for a variety of market segments, including the manufacturing, distribution, and healthcare industries; municipal, educational and religious organizations; and commercial and retail companies.
