

Advanced Driving Systems Hosts Coloring Contest Fundraiser

A coloring contest is the source to raise money for FDOA's hunting program.

Tallahassee, FL (PRWEB) January 18, 2016 -- For the month of January, Advanced Driving Systems is hosting a coloring contest. This contest is open to children under the age of 12 and all proceeds will be donated to the Florida Disabled Outdoors Association.

The Florida Disabled Outdoors Association (FDOA) — a non-profit organization working toward enriching lives through accessible recreation — will be receiving these proceeds to be put toward their hunting program.

The coloring contest hosted by Advanced Driving Systems is open to any child 12 years of age or younger. One entry per child is permitted and can be posted to either the Advanced Driving Systems, Inc. Facebook page or to Twitter @ADSTallahassee. Both pictures and scans of the child's coloring are acceptable.

Advanced Driving System will donate $1 for every entry received, up to 500 entries, to the FDOA for their annual hunting trip fund. The contest begins Jan. 18. All entries must be submitted before Feb. 15, 2016. Each contestant will be automatically entered to win prizes. The prizes are as follows:

1st Place: $50 gift card to Academy Sports

2nd Place: $25 gift card to Academy Sports

3rd Place: $10 gift card to Academy Sports
