

San Jose DUI Lawyer James Reilly of Summit Defense Attorneys Holds Seminar for Fellow DUI Attorneys

San Jose DUI lawyer James Reilly, of Summit Defense Attorneys, spoke at a LawReviewCle live seminar to educate other DUI defense attorneys on the intricacies of DUI law and the court process.

San Jose, California (PRWEB) January 02, 2012 -- As an experienced San Jose DUI lawyer with Summit Defense Attorneys in California, James Reilly has built a reputation as an expert on defending clients against driving under the influence charges. The LawReviewCle group recognized Mr. Reilly's authority on the subject by naming him speaker at a recent continuing legal education seminar titled Handling Your First DUI Case.

LawReviewCle seminars are how-to format discussions that feature top local attorneys elaborating on their experience and knowledge in a given field of law. With a distinguished record of getting clients justice in DUI cases, Mr. Reilly was a qualified expert to educate the audience on the entire legal process stemming from these charges. Mr. Reilly detailed every step, from client interview all the way through trial, in his comprehensive five-hour speech.

Mr. Reilly has over 20 years of criminal law experience and was a supervising DA at one point in his illustrious and successful career. He graduated from Pepperdine Law School and was a UC Hastings Law School instructor before entering private practice.

For individuals charged with DUI offenses, it is important to obtain and retain a DUI lawyer that is experienced in the legal system and has knowledge of particular court procedures that can affect the judgment of your case. In Mr. Reilly's seminar, he also covered specific expert tactics for each part of the process including client intake, information gathering, DMV to-do lists, evaluating consequences and ethics, as well as tips for the actual proceedings: arraignment, discovery, pre-trial conferences, motions to suppress, and the ethics of handling discovery.

A San Jose DUI lawyer must be able to help their client by aggressively fighting for their rights and demanding fair trial treatment. With the help of Mr. Reilly, local attorneys will be better equipped to defend their clients in the coming years.
