45MPH.COM WORTHY OF THE GOLDEN WEB AWARD FOR THE SECOND TIME

Norfolk, VA, March 13, 2001 -

The International Association of Web Masters & Designers, also known as I.A.W.M.D. and located at www.goldenwebawards.com, recently awarded 45.mph.com the Golden Web Award for the second time.

Awarded in March for the 2001-2002 year, the Golden Web Award is only given to Web sites with good content and design, sites deserving recognition.

The usefulness of 45MPH.com becomes apparent with one look at the home page. The layout makes it easy to locate automotive information surfers are looking for. "45MPH.com is easy to navigate, giving visitors the information they're looking for within a few clicks." Says Richard Bohanon owner of the Web Site. "Every listing is Individually reviewed, assuring our visitors relevant and valuable results every time they conduct a search. And I believe that the IAWMD award is a reflection of our superior content."

Among the many listings the web site has to offer its visitors, are buying New and Used cars, Antique and Classic appraisals, Auto parts and Accessories, Financing and loans, Auto racing and Hot rods, Education, Insurance and Buying guides.
