

World Patent Marketing Invention Team Launches The Mounting Bracket, a Storage Invention For Gun Enthusiasts and Hunters

World Patent Marketing Reviews A New Storage Invention. Will The Mounting Bracket Be the Next World Patent Marketing Low Cost Success Story?

Miami, FL (PRWEB) February 08, 2016 -- World Patent Marketing, a vertically integrated manufacturer and engineer of patented products, announces the Mounting Bracket, a storage invention designed to accommodate and protect guns while in transit.

"The Gun and Ammunition industry is worth $3 billion," says Scott Cooper, CEO and Creative Director of World Patent Marketing. "While growth was rapid in the last five years, the industry will experience a decline due to increased regulation and a backlash resulting from recent high-profile shootings."

"Whether hunting for food or recreational purposes, guns need to be transported from one location to another," says Jerry Shapiro, Director of Manufacturing and World Patent Marketing Inventions. "When it comes to transporting guns, it is important to make sure that it is kept secured inside a vehicle at all times. The Mounting Bracket is a storage invention which will provide a safe way to travel while carrying firearms."

The Mounting Bracket is a storage invention designed to properly store guns inside a vehicle. It is designed with holding portions which will accommodate different sized rifles and other firearms. Made with durable aluminum, this invention allows people to easily and conveniently store their hunting weaponry inside a moving vehicle.

"The dream come true for every rifle and shotgun owner! Makes life easier to carry a gun without holding it," says inventor Dominic D. "This storage invention is especially designed to properly secure each rifle or gun without fear of accidentally damaging it while in transit, or unintentionally shooting someone inside a moving vehicle. This invention of mine not only adds storage space for your rifles, it also adds safety features at the same time."

Carl Matthews, a construction worker and avid hunting fan from Hewitt, TX, has this to say about the Mounting Bracket: "I take good care of my hunting rifles and when it comes to travelling with it during hunting season, I make sure that nothing is damaged during the whole drive. With the Mounting Bracket I am able to do just that and keep my guns organized at the same time."

The Mounting Bracket is a unique storage invention designed to provide a safer and more organized way of storing hunting rifles and guns inside a vehicle.
