

ESCORT Opens CES Week at CEA Unveiled New Product Show with Bluetooth®-equipped Radar Detectors and App Updates

New Detectors Link Award-winning ESCORT Live™ Social App

Las Vegas, NV (PRWEB) January 02, 2015 -- ESCORT Inc. (ESCORTradar.com), designer and manufacturer of the world's best performing radar and laser detectors, is exhibiting the new PASSPORT® and PASSPORT Max2™ radar detectors at the 2015 CES Unveiled New Product Show this weekend ahead of next week's CES Show.

The new Bluetooth®-equipped detectors are designed to easily accommodate connection to the highly awarded ESCORT Live™ ticket protection app.

ESCORT will also debut the addition of Air Patrol and Intelligent Speed Traps to its award-winning social app Escort Live™. The new Air Patrol feature alerts drivers to known areas enforced by aircraft and Intelligent Speed Trap alerts to enforcement locations by level of historical activity and critically.

Media and press are encouraged to attend the CES Unveiled Show on Sunday afternoon, Jan 4, 4-7 PM at the Mandalay Bay Hotel and Casino, Level 3, South Seas Ballroom C.

ESCORT will also exhibit at the CES Show (Tue-Fri, Jan 6-9, LVCC North Hall, Booth 1221) and is encouraging media and press to attend their official ESCORT CES press conference (Tuesday, Jan 6, 10:30 AM, Venetian Level 1, Galileo Ballroom 905). Key topics include the new PASSPORT®, PASSPORT Max2™ and ESCORT Live™ app updates. Press conference attendees will be eligible for prizes including a new PASSPORT Max2™ Bluetooth-equipped radar detector and a GoPro Hero4+ cam.
