

CM Truck Beds Prepares to Attend the NTEA Work Truck Show

CM Truck Beds is preparing to attend the 2016 annual NTEA Work Truck Show in Indianapolis, Indiana. The show is set to take place March 2-4 and will further the growth, profitability, and professionalism of its members.

Kingston, OK (PRWEB) February 25, 2016 -- CM Truck Beds is attending the 2016 NTEA Work Truck Show, taking place in Indianapolis, Indiana. This annual show will be March 2-4, where CM Truck Beds will have an interactive booth set up, with new and existing products available for fleet and commercial buyers at the show.

Established in 1964, as the Truck Equipment and Body Distributors Association, the organization has grown and now today represents nearly 1,800 companies. The NTEA provides in-depth technical information, education, and member programs and services, as well as producing the Work Truck Show. The Association maintains its administrative headquarters in suburban Detroit and government relation offices in Washington, D.C. and Ottawa, ON, Canada.

The NTEA is dedicated to furthering the growth, profitability and professionalism of its members and functions as the hub of the work truck industry. The Truck Show will review recruiting and retaining skilled employees, new product lines and industry alliances, government regulations, and current market and equipment trends.

As one industry, one association, and one resource, the Work Truck Show will provide everything attendees need and more.

CM Truck Beds is the household name for truck bodies and has been building household factory beds for more than 20 years. Their dedication and loyalty to producing only the best body haulers have made them the most highly recommended truck bed manufacturer in the country. Standing by their reputation but always looking to the future, CM Truck Beds is proud to stand behind their battle tested haulers.
