

Crete - bus timetables now on the internet

Bus timetables for the island of Crete are now viewable on <http://www.cretetravel.com>

(PRWEB) August 25, 2001 -- CreteTravel.com has added bus timetables for this large island, to the website at <http://www.cretetravel.com>.

This compliments the already extensive information available on the website, including flight and ferry timetables.

Many who use the "Where Should I go in Crete" feature, book holidays and rent a car to tour the island. But often those visitors to Crete who are staying in one place for several days or enjoy the local feel of touring by bus, have found travel information hard to come by. Not anymore!

The CreteTravel.com bus timetables, like the whole website, are designed for ease of use.
