Auto Insurance Agent, Senate Insurance, Now Senate Select Insurance

The former Senate Insurance of Washington D.C., which was best known for its television commercials with the slogan "Kiss my Bumper," has been sold to EZ Insurance Group of Baltimore, MD, and is now named Senate Select Insurance.

Washington D.C. (PRWEB) April 21, 2016 -- The former Senate Insurance of Washington D.C., which was best known for its television commercials with the slogan "Kiss my Bumper," has been sold to EZ Insurance Group of Baltimore, MD and is now named Senate Select Insurance.

The purchase took place in June 2014.

The new company, doing business as Senate Select Insurance, now has nine locations in the Baltimore/D.C. market including Woodlawn, Essex (a few doors down from the MVA), Glen Burnie (across the street from the MVA) and Pimlico (next door to the MVA) in Baltimore, and in the Washington D.C market: Laurel, Capital Heights, Greenbelt in the Beltway Plaza Mall next to McDonalds, Oxon Hill and in Alexandria, Virginia.

The sale of the agency and the transition to Senate Select Insurance has been smooth with no customer coverage interruptions. In fact, the parent company of the new Senate Select offers more customer choices than the previous companies' including more payment options and more insurance companies to choose from.

The firm specializes in providing same day auto insurance for those who have lost their insurance no matter the reason.

Any questions regarding the new Senate Select Insurance can be answered by calling 800-622-9333 in the Washington D.C. market, 410-467-8733 in the Baltimore market or by visiting SenateInsurance.com.
