

World Patent Marketing Invention Team Introduces A Breakthrough Automotive Invention That Keeps Side Mirrors And Door Windows Clean Automatically!

World Patent Marketing Reviews A New Automotive Invention. Will Door Mirror Wipers Be the Next World Patent Marketing Low Cost Success Story?

Miami, FL (PRWEB) May 18, 2016 -- World Patent Marketing, a vertically integrated manufacturer and engineer of patented products, announces the Door Mirror Wipers, an automotive invention designed to keep the side mirrors and door windows of a vehicle clean.

"The Global Car and Automobile Manufacturing industry is worth $2 trillion," says Scott Cooper, CEO and Creative Director of World Patent Marketing. "Most families need more than one vehicle. Rising incomes and low production costs will make the industry grow even more in the next five years."

"While driving, it is important to keep your eyes on the road and be on the lookout for potential hazards," says Jerry Shapiro, Director of Manufacturing and World Patent Marketing Inventions. "The Door Mirror Wipers is an automotive invention which allows users to clean their door windows and side mirrors in a hands-free manner."

The Door Mirror Wipers is an automotive invention designed to thoroughly wipe and clean door mirrors found in vehicles. Made with high quality materials, this invention features a unique design to keep door mirrors and windows effective for clear viewing no matter what that weather condition is. It features a small and compact electrical motor inside the housing. This motor allows the wiper blades to effectively move over the mirror via a reciprocating coupling linkage that connects the wiper blade to the motor. The Door Mirror Wipers will be very easy to operate. Once turned on, it can be made to sway upward or downward, depending on the cleaning need. By using this device, added safety while driving is provided.

"I live in Washington State," says inventor Shannon C. "As some may know, we receive a lot of rain. What I soon began to notice, was that using my door mirrors effectively required rolling down my windows and wiping excessive moisture from the mirrors. So, I thought it only natural that by adding mirror wipers, I could do away with wiping mirrors in the rain and make; backing and changing lanes safer. I hope the introduction of my product, proves to enhance maneuvering in inclement weather."

George Brown, a trucker from Idaho, has this to say about the Door Mirror Wipers: "Being on the road for work, I try to find ways to make every road trip efficient and safe. By being able to clean my side mirrors and door windows any time I want and without having to leave my truck, I am now able to be efficiently keep my eyes on the road and be more cautious about my surroundings while driving."

The Door Mirror Wipers is an automotive invention which will thoroughly clean side mirrors and door windows for added road safety.
