Peugeot 108 City Car Top-Of-The-Pops On Reevoo

The Peugeot 108 has been awarded a near top score of nine out of ten in Reevoo, based on 900 reviews of the city car range.

(PRWEB UK) 26 May 2016 -- Peugeot's ultimate city car, the compact and agile Peugeot 108, has proved a hit with Peugeot customers since its launch in 2014.

The nippy car that's full on character has been awarded a near top score of nine out of ten in Reevoo, based on 900 reviews of the city car range.

The Peugeot 108, noted for its personalisation themes, iTop models and innovative Open & Go system, scored top points for being fun to drive, practicality, fuel efficiency and good value for money on the Reevoo scoreboard.

'Deceptively spacious inside', 'Fantastic car', 'Smooth drive' and 'looks amazing' are just some of the comments left by Peugeot customers on the Reevoo site.

Designed to make city driving more fun, the Peugeot 108 is available in an expanded palette of vibrant exterior colours. Contrasting roof colours, body decals and interior detailing ensure this car truly reflects its driver's personality.

In addition to being fashionable and fun, driver comfort is also top of the list of Peugeot 108 highlights, with an advanced infotainment system featuring a 7-inch touch-screen display. Meanwhile, the 108's PureTech 3-cylinder petrol engine provides excellent fuel economy and is low on CO_2 emissions, keeping city driving cost effective and clean.

Tennis enthusiasts love the 108 TOP! Roland Garros special edition, sold in Diamond White or Raven Black metallic, with distinctive Roland Garros branding and orange coloured door mirrors.

Those wanting a sporty edge to their city commute will welcome the new GT line when announced, joining the Peugeot 108.
