Transportation Company Makes Celebrity Lifestyle Affordable

Southern California's limousine service, Personal Airport Transportation has a unique way that "none celebrities" can live like stars "without breaking the bank." Their affordable rates are based on a flat charge as opposed to taxi's that charge both a minute and mile rate. Ride just about anywhere in So. Cal. in style and elegance.

Ontario, Ca. (PRWEB) February 22, 2003 --- When was the last time you "shared" a ride with Newt Gingrich (Washington Celebrity) General Wesley Clark (Kosovo War), Stephen Covey (Seven Habits Of Highly Effective People) and Lilly Noel (Gospel Legend)? Well when you book with Southern California's limousine service, Personal Airport Transportation, you may very well be sitting where one of these notables have sat. They have all experienced the "Personal" difference. From the above named celebrities to business people to everyday people, Ed Ower, Owner of Personal Airport Transportation has driven them all.

Now, Ed Ower has created a unique concept that takes transportation service to another level. Through his company, "non-celebs" can live like stars "without breaking the bank." His affordable rates are based on a flat charge as opposed to taxis that charge both a minute and mile rate. At these prices, you can ride a Lincoln Sedan Limousine to just about anywhere in Southern California, Ontario or Los Angeles. Personal Airport Transportation is a friendly, reliable and elegant way to travel. From the finest hotels, restaurants and nightclubs to Long Beach, Palm Springs, LAX, Burbank, Ontario International and all the points in between, Ed Ower says "We'll get you there with enough time to spare."

Mr. Ower likes to think of himself as a "Working Retiree." He spent 33 years in the Circulation Department at the Pasadena Star News. After accepting a buy-out package from The News, he started driving a Super Shuttle followed by some time with YELLOW CAB. While exploring the transportation business for these two companies, the idea of Personal Airport Transportation, was born.

A Fully Insured limousine service, Personal Airport Transportation has spacious limousine town cars that seat up to 5 passengers in comfort. When you book 5 people traveling to the same address your group shares one great rate!

With a strong Christian belief system, Mr. Ower takes the stance of Lawrence Welk who he says never had a written contract with people on his show. Ower believes that "Your Word Is Your Word" that's why he'll always be there when you call.

So, when you're ready to "ride" around town in style and comfort, contacting Ed Ower and Personal Airport Transportation is fast and easy! A Toll Free 1-877-888-4492 phone number connects you instantly to a live dispatcher or you can visit them at www.patranz.com. They'll be waiting to offer you that "Personal" Touch.
