(PRWEB) April 5, 2003 -- Car Buying Tips Inc. states it has guided website visitors to a total of 1 million dollars in savings. William Dearn the person behind the website <http://www.car-buyingtips.com> was quoted as saying "I am very happy that I could help car buyers save 1 million dollars in such a short time. I started the website in March of 2003 and we already bypassed our most conservative projections." The purpose of Car Buying Tips is to do the research that every new or used car buyer should perform before visiting an auto dealer.

Way too many car buyers have made the mistake of jumping into purchasing a car without researching this high priced item. Car Buying Tips was developed because way too many new car buyers are heading straight to the dealership when they want to purchase a new car and they are skipping the most important new car buying step and that is RESEARCH. If you do a little research using our site you should get a savings of at least $1000.00 on your new car purchase. Buying a new car can be a very daunting task. Usually a new car purchase is the second most expensive purchase a person will make in their life time. With a little homework anyone can make this purchase and walk out of the auto dealership knowing they got the best deal possible. Car Buying Tips did the car buying homework for you and posted it here so even the first time new car buyer can save on your next new car purchase.

The secret to new car buying is to bypass the commissioned salesmen and deal directly with the non-commission internet sales manager by visiting the internet car sites and obtaining competitive bids. We will review the sites you should visit to get the best deal.
