Crayder has extensive experience in the automotive and RV industries. Most recently, he has served as General Manager of Lazydays Tucson. "I am proud of the tremendous growth we achieved in Tucson, and I intend to bring that positive energy with me to Colorado," said Crayder. "I look forward to being part of a successful team in Loveland."

Justice is a 40-year veteran of the RV industry, with more than 20 years of his career at Lazydays' flagship RV dealership in Tampa. He subsequently served as general manager for an Alabama RV dealership and for two Camping World stores before rejoining Lazydays to take on the General Manager position in Tucson.
