Aramendia Motorsports Sponsoring 3 Cars in Young Chevrolet 100 at Texas Motor Speedway on June 7, 2003

San Antonio, TX (PRWEB) May 23, 2003 -- Aramendia Motorsports and team owner John Aramendia are pleased to announce that they will run three cars in the Young Chevrolet 100, a ROMCO Late Model Series race, at the Texas Motor Speedway on Saturday, June 7. NASCAR Busch Series Driver Joe Aramendia, popular San Antonio radio personality and NASCAR driver Trey Ware and 3-time NASCAR Winston Racing Series late model champion Jason Oates will all race under the Aramendia banner.

The Young Chevrolet 100 brings together the region's best late model teams as they compete for the season's most important event in a scheduled 70 lap feature on the 1.5-mile speedway. The race begins at 4 p.m.

ABOUT THE DRIVERS

Joe Aramendia, Busch Series Driver - Joe Aramendia began his career in racing at age 24, debuting in a thirty-lap feature race at the San Antonio Speedway in San Antonio, Texas in 1988. For the next eight years, Joe raced late-model stock cars and claimed several feature wins, finishing in the top ten in the driver point standings each year. Joe Aramendia came into his own in 2002 with a sixth place Total Points finish in his NASCAR All Pro debut. Joe finished first in points among rookie drivers and received the prestigious Sportsmanship Award. In January 2003, team owner John Aramendia purchased several Busch Grand National cars from AJ Foyt Racing and Joe Aramendia began his latest move up the racing ladder. Joe has run three Busch Series races, finishing 20th in his last outing, the O'Reilly 300 at the Texas Motor Speedway. Born on April 23, 1963 in San Antonio, Texas to James and Carol Aramendia, Joe resides in Seguin, Texas with wife Carolyn. He has two children: daughters Joeylynn and Carol.

Trey Ware, - Raised on Radio And Racing - Popular San Antonio radio star Trey Ware, son of local broadcasting legend Ricci Ware, grew up on the radio and in racing. The elder Ware owned two Speedways in his 50 years of ties to motorsports; Trey's brother Ricci Jr. has been in racing for 25 years. Trey Ware made his radio debut on country station KBUC as a disc jockey at age thirteen. Since 1993, Trey has made his radio home at KTSA-AM News Talk 550 in San Antonio, keeping South Texas company on the morning drive. Racing since age ten, Trey Ware has run everything from go-carts to Legends cars. His racing career has focused on tracks throughout central Texas; for the past two years, Trey has run exclusively at the San Antonio Speedway. Trey Ware has been married to wife Nancy for 18 years. They have two children: son Justin and daughter Rebekah.

Jason Oates, 3-Time NASCAR Late Model Champion Â Jason Oates has been in racing since 1982 and is a 3-time San Antonio NASCAR late model champion of the Winston Racing Series. Jason has won numerous points championships throughout his career, racing primarily in San Antonio. Jason has also competed in Nashville, Austin and Corpus Christi. In his last two ROMCO Series outings, Jason led the races until parts failures took him out of the running. Jason and wife Cindy have been married for 17 years and have three children: Justin, Cody and Jacob. They are the owners of Affordable Trailers and Ultimate Truck Accessories in San Antonio. Son Justin is following his father's example having competed in four races this year, finishing second in his most recent event.
