

ONLINE TRAFFIC SCHOOL OFFERS CONVENIENCE TO A BUSY GENERATION

New Website Offers An Outstanding Driver Safety Course Approved in Nine States And Gives Students A 5% Discount!

(PRWEB) June 1, 2003 -- Instead of spending hours in a classroom, many drivers on the receiving end of a traffic ticket are speeding to the computer to take traffic school online.

TrafficSurvivor.com, a new website designed to offer a comprehensive driver safety course at an affordable cost, is an affiliate of I Drive Safely, a recognized leader in distance learning. The driver safety courses offered are approved in California (Traffic School), Colorado (Driver Improvement), Florida (Basic Driver Improvement / TCAC), Idaho (Point Reduction), Missouri Driver Improvement), Nevada (Point Reduction), New Mexico (Driver Improvement), Texas (Ticket Dismissal) and Virginia (Point / Fine Reduction). Everyone who registers through TrafficSurvivor.com receives a 5% discount from the regular course fee.

In addition to the online courses offered, TrafficSurvivor.com provides consumers with helpful links to safety-related organizations such as the National Highway Traffic Safety Institute, the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety and MADD, just to name a few.

Contact Information

R. Berry

<http://www.trafficsurvivor.com>

323-440-6800

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.