

Commercial Auto Comparative Rater - First in California - Available only from Superior Access

California agents will be the first to experience the new Commercial Auto Comparative Rater available from Superior Access Insurance Services, Inc.

(PRWEB) July 22, 2003 -- Richard Swoy, Chairman of Superior Access Insurance Services, Inc., has announced that California agents will be the first to experience the new Commercial Auto Comparative Rater available from Superior Access Insurance Services, Inc.

According to Swoy, Superior Access' Comparative Raters for its personal lines products - auto and homeowners - have been so enthusiastically embraced by its agents, that moving to the commercial market with a commercial auto comparative rater was the next natural step. Superior Access was able to gather together many of the best auto insurance companies in the country with an appetite for commercial auto. The current carriers participating in this exclusive on-line program are rated 'A+' by A.M. Best and are admitted in California.

Commercial Auto Comparative Rater Program

To access the program, qualified agents need simply to go to the Superior Access website at www.superioraccess.com and click on California, Commercial Lines and then click on Auto Insurance Comparative Raters. Here the agent can review the program or simply begin the quoting process. After inputting the required information, it automatically quotes the insurers that the applicant will likely qualify for. The agent can simply fax or mail the information to the client.

The insurers participating in the program are stable, admitted and 'A+' rated. Agents are likely to receive comparative quotes on a wide range of submissions. More carriers will be added as volume and interest increase.

Swoy explains, 'We intend to provide a comparative quote for every situation.'
