Ajax Chauffeur & Taxis is pleased to announce that they will be offering fixed price airport transfer services to all major London airports in 2014.

(PRWEB UK) 5 January 2014 -- Ajax Chauffeur & Taxis is pleased to announce that they will be offering fixed price airport transfer services to all major London airports in 2014. The firm realises that the start of the year is the ideal time to get away on a break to see the sun and they are pleased to offer a more reliable and affordable airport transfer service to all of their clients. Whether a client is flying from Heathrow, Gatwick, Farnborough, Luton, Stansted or London City Airport, it will be possible to book a fixed rate fee from Ajax Chauffeur & Taxis.

The firm provides a 24 hours a day service so no matter when a client has to be at the airport, they can book their taxi with confidence. There is a strict time constraint to bear in mind when travelling to an airport and this is why it makes sense to travel with the local travel experts. The firm employs a number of highly experienced taxi drivers who will ensure that all passengers arrive at the airport in reasonable time for their flight. With many people suffering nerves when flying, it makes sense to take as much stress out of flying as possible, which is where arriving at the airport in comfort and with no financial surprises, is of enormous benefit.

The firm provides the most reliable taxi Godalming has ever seen and can offer a wide range of cars from their fleet. No matter how many people are in the travelling party, Ajax Chauffeur & Taxis can take care of the journey. The firm provides estate cars, executive cars and 8 seater vehicles, allowing businesses, teams and families to arrive at their destination in comfort and style. Having the ability to split the journey between more people creates even more value for money, making this the most affordable taxi Waverley has to offer. No matter the final destination for a client, travelling with Ajax makes considerable sense.

One of the main reasons for booking a taxi when travelling to an airport is to get peace of mind. This is something that the company aims to deliver to all of their clients. All of the cars in the Ajax Chauffeur & Taxi range are regularly serviced, and all of the drivers have been fully CRB checked. The firm is fully licenced and regulated by local authorities, which should ensure every passenger travels in comfort.
