

Used Transmissions Now for Sale in Dallas, TX by National Auto Parts Retailer

Used transmissions are now for sale to buyers in Dallas, TX courtesy of the AutoProsUSA.com company. These sales are processed for standard and automatic builds from most U.S. automakers.

Dallas, TX (PRWEB) January 05, 2014 -- Parts distribution in the United States through the Auto Pros USA company has been updated to include additional states this year. This company is currently offering used transmissions for sale in Dallas, TX to buyers at <http://autoprosusa.com/used-transmissions-dallas-tx>.

These expanded shipments in 2014 to Dallas County parts buyers is one portion of new upgrades put into place to increase options for buyers. Additional states for fulfillment were included at the end of 2013 to increase the size of the distribution now available for parts deliveries.

The transmissions that are now marketed and distributed to the state of Texas includes Ford, Dodge, Toyota, Honda, Chrysler and Jeep builds that are in stock. These units are arranged to include automatic and standard edition gearboxes that are discounted for public sale.

"New partners in the fulfillment industry have joined our network in 2014 to help expand the solutions for parts shipment in Southern states," said a source at the AutoProsUSA.com company.

New suppliers for automotive transmissions have enabled the Auto Pros USA company to increase the amount of inventory that can be located using the research lookup tools online. These companies are supplying certified condition builds to improve the parts quality that buyers receive upon purchase.

"All used transmissions that are now for sale and shipped to the state of Texas feature expanded warranty coverage that is included in the sale price," the source confirmed.

The new shipments processed include an extended plan of warranty coverage for each gearbox. These warranties are provided by each fulfillment agency offering the distribution to customers. All transmissions that are in stock and those that will be included for sale this year are included in the warranty coverage eligibility.

Parts buyers in the state of Texas or surrounding states interested in the new shipments available can call the Auto Pros company directly at 1-888-238-1731. Current pricing and inventory status for any transmission can now be acquired using this dedicated toll-free phone system for customer support.
