

Lloyd Fraser Transport and Logistics

UK logistics and supply chain experts win new contract

(PRWEB) December 20, 2003 --Following a competitive tendering process, Lloyd Fraser are delighted to announce that they have been successful in securing the prestigious Manor Bakery Distribution Contract. The contract will be operated by Lloyd Fraser (Contracts), a wholly owned subsidiary of Lloyd Fraser Holdings and will be based at the Manor NDC at Rugby , with a number of strategically located transport out-bases.

The contract will run for 3 years and will involve outgoing deliveries to Manor customers and bakery collections from Barnsley , Stoke and Eastleigh back to the NDC in Rugby involving approximately 50 vehicles. TUPE regulations will apply to the existing Christian Salveson employees currently involved in the contract and we look forward to welcoming them to Lloyd Fraser.

Lloyd Fraser is an expert in the transportation and supply chain industry and prides itself on its vision and client management. The securing of such a contract has cemented Lloyd Fraser as a force within the UK logistics market.
