Critics Reviews of All American Bikini Car Wash:

"Aesthetically the film print is clean and clear, the sexy shots are well lit, and I feel the need to pull my car into this 'All American Bikini Car Wash' for a shiny new clean! Seriously, this film is definitely worth a rent or buy if one needs to escape life for awhile, especially as it is getting cold in many parts of the world." [Dan's Movie Report dansmoviereport.blogspot.com/2015/11/all-american-bikini-car-wash-movie.html]

"Ok, if by hearing the title All American Bikini Car Wash, associations soft erotica from the 1980s and 90s on late night TV pop up almost instantly, nobody can blame you I suppose, and you do get quite a bit of topless nudity in this film, plus plenty of hot girls in skimpy bikinis - but the focus isn't on the female body in various stages of undress here, All American Bikini Car Wash manages to tell an actual story carried by colourful characters, and paced in a way that pushes the narrative forward rather than make room for a few more boobies - all of which is also helped by some rather decent acting, a brand of comedy clearly above toilet humour and the simply moronic, and a rather subtle direction that all make this film into something different than just a softcore romp. Sure, this is not the next Citizen Kane, nor will a film with a title like All American Bikini Car Wash ever try to be ... it's just 90+ minutes of innocent and at the same time slightly naughty entertainment - simply put: great summer fun! " [Mike Haberfelner searchmytrash.com/movies/allamericanbikinicarwash%282015%29.shtml]

"While this may not be everyone's cup of tea, purveyor's of this blend of comedy will find themselves right at home. We support bikini's, car washes, and independent films, so this is a trifecta win on that front. Every now and again you just need some good, cheesy comedic fun...with bikinis. 'Merica."
