

SupportStore's Heart Shaped Car Magnet Set Turns a Vehicle Into a Valentine's Day Surprise

The SupportStore Valentine Candy Heart Shaped Car Magnet set is a fresh easy way to create smiles. Available now only at SupportStore.com.

Chicago, IL (PRWEB) December 31, 2013 -- SupportStore announces a new creative way to surprise a sweetheart this Valentine's Day.

The SupportStore Valentine's Day Car Magnet set includes 24 heart shaped magnets in a vinyl pouch for $15.99 available only at SupportStore.com.

The magnets are made of indoor/outdoor magnetic vinyl and printed with UV protected color inks, and can safely be used on cars, trucks, metal whiteboards or any other metal surface.

The individual magnets include messages like "Be mine" and "Kiss me" making them just like candy hearts, except they go on metal surfaces and contain no calories.

The recommended use for this Valentine gift idea is to sneak them onto a vehicle for the surprise factor when the car owner first spots their car.

For men or women looking for a simple yet fresh way to surprise someone they care about, this Valentine's Day Car Magnet Set is sure to create smiles. The instructions are easy too, just stick them on the vehicle and remove them after the day has passed. The magnets are reusable and store in the included vinyl pouch until the next romantic occasion.
