

Turan Foley Chevrolet Cadillac Buick Celebrates Four Years of Partnership With VetsCars

Turan Foley Chevrolet Cadillac Buick, auto retailer in Gulfport for 40 years, celebrates a continuing partnership with VetsCars to offer discounts on new car purchases to veterans.

GULFPORT, MS. (PRWEB) July 28, 2016 -- Turan Foley Chevrolet Cadillac Buick, a well-known multi-brand car dealership for new and pre-owned vehicles in Gulfport, MS, takes great pride in announcing that it will continue to partner with the VetsCars military discount program following a celebration of four years together. All active and recently-discharged armed service personnel and their families are eligible for the program, which covers all three of the car dealership's signature brands.

Paul Bozant, the general manager of Turan Foley Chevrolet Cadillac Buick, and the dealership's on-site VetsCars representative, explained his role in the program. "At Turan Foley, we treat all our customers like family," said Bozant, "but a lot of the vets that come in don't know that they're eligible for special savings. As our on-site VetsCars rep, I help make it easier for them to get the cars they really want. The extra service is our way of thanking them for their service," said Bozant.

By partnering with VetsCars, Turan Foley enhances its own discount program for military personnel. Veterans can combine specials and discounts offered by both brand and dealer to potentially shave thousands off listed purchase or lease prices for new Chevrolets, Cadillacs or Buicks at Turan Foley. The car dealership reports over 500 car sales per year to military and ex-military customers.

The VetsCars program serves the military and veteran communities by educating eligible prospective car buyers about the discounts and specials available uniquely to them from 30 participating brands. VetsCars' online portal brings all these military discount opportunities together on one website for easy searching.
