(PRWEB) April 9, 2004 -- Bruce Nutting, a resident of Marshfield, Mass., has recently been appointed Account Manager at Burgess Movers. Headquartered in Randolph, Mass., Burgess Movers is a Paul Arpin Van Lines agent and recent recipient of Paul Arpin's "Rookie of the Year" award.

As Account Manager at Burgess, Nutting, a veteran of the moving industry, will manage his own commercial and residential sales, which includes estimates, site surveys and customer service. Prior to becoming Account Manager, Nutting worked in the field as driver, laborer and warehouseman. Nutting has more than 10 years of experience having previously worked for Atlas Van Lines, Mayflower and United Van Lines.

Nutting holds a Bachelor of Art in Art from Southeastern Mass University, now known as University of Dartmouth. During his college years, Nutting worked for Burgess Movers (then a Mayflower agent) as a laborer.

"Bruce's talent, dedication and excellence in customer service prove him to be an asset to Burgess Movers and we're pleased to have him at the helm as Account Manager," said Ken Burgess, president and partner of Burgess Movers.

A native of Milton, Mass., Nutting resides in Marshfield, Mass. In his spare time, Nutting, a guitarist and singer in the Christian band Final Fire, performs at venues throughout the South Shore.
