

InventHelp Invention Provides an Effective, Polite Way to Alert Other Drivers to Vehicle Problems (PND-4677)

InventHelp is working to submit this idea, ROAD SIGNS, to companies in the hopes of their good faith review.

PITTSBURGH, PA (PRWEB) September 30, 2016 -- An inventor from Ewing, N.J., drives a lot, so he knows that when you try to tell another driver about a problem with their vehicle, they can't always tell what you're trying to say. "My idea solves this problem," he said.

The easy-to-use and versatile, patent-pending ROAD SIGNS provides an effective and polite way for a driver to alert another driver to a vehicle problem. It helps prevent accidents, as well as promotes safety and peace of mind. This inventions is ideal for all drivers.

The original design was submitted to the Philadelphia office of InventHelp. It is currently available for licensing or sale to manufacturers or marketers.
