TNT Super Series Releases 2017 Schedule - 11th Season is Best Yet

Highly competitive sportsman drag racing series enters its second decade!

NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO (February 25, 2017) The country's most competitive sportsman drag racing series is heading into its eleventh season and has released the 2017 schedule. The Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series brings the best drivers from the US and Canada together for events in both southern Ontario and western New York.

Returning in 2017 is the 2nd annual TNTSS 5K presented by Roy & Tara Lister. The 5K is a $5000 to win race with a guaranteed purse and no minimum car count. It will again be held alongside the IHRA event at Empire Dragway on Friday August 18.

The 2017 TNTSS season is all double race weekends - except for the 5K. The season begins Memorial Day weekend at Lancaster's 1/8 mile on Friday and then Empire's 1/4 mile on Saturday - Again this year both of these are GUARANTEED $1000 to win thanks to Steve's Electric.

The series then crosses into Canada and hits St Thomas Raceway Park on June 24-25. Back to the US on July 14-15 for another Friday-Saturday double and then on to Toronto Motorsports Park on July 29-30.

The 5K on Friday August 18 at Empire will be part of the IHRA Summit Sportsman National Championship weekend event with live coverage streamed online by MotorManiaTV. Last year's TNTSS 5K drew 72 cars for the round one call.

The 2017 TNTSS season will wrap up on Championship Weekend beginning Friday September 8 at Lancaster and concluding Saturday September 9 at Empire.

The TNTSS continues to offer 10.90 racers one of the best payout structures in the industry hands down - just like it always has - along with specialty awards and contingency postings at every race.

The yearend points fund provides $15,000 cash & prizes to the top finishers.

The TNTSS is committed to providing the highest level of competition backed by solid media support to showcase its participants across North America.
