Shares Importance of Cloud-based Traffic Data and Analytics for Law Enforcement

Herndon, VA (PRWEB) May 02, 2017 -- All Traffic Solutions, the leader in cloud-based traffic management solutions for law enforcement, transportation and smart cities just released its latest white paper, Eight Reasons You Need Traffic Data and Analytics Now. The paper was written specifically for law enforcement agencies with limited resources and budget who are challenged with managing and reporting on their traffic safety programs.

The white paper makes the case why police departments and other law enforcement agencies should adopt a data-driven strategy for their traffic management programs that is both centralized and cloud-based. According to the white paper, results of applying a data analytics strategy include:

- More informed decision making
- More effective utilization of resources
- Reduction of speeding violations
- Improved community relations
- Safer roads for everyone, for now and for the future
