

Bad Credit Auto Lender Shares “10 Tips to Cut your Car Insurance Costs” in New Article

The trusted auto lender, Complete Auto Loans, share tips to help shoppers save on their auto insurance.

Seattle, WA (PRWEB) January 13, 2015 -- With the New Year here, it is a great time to start looking at expenses. Car insurance is the perfect place to start. Insurance rates are continuously changing and updating your policy and rates is important. The no credit check auto lender is helping shoppers in their newest article. Complete Auto Loans is sharing the 10 tips to cut car insurance costs.

Get approved for a car loan in as little as 60 seconds: <https://completeautoloans.com/application-form/>.

“Whether it seems fair or not, insurance companies often equate bad credit with a higher chance of filing claims. This means a bad credit score could result in higher premiums,” one tip from Complete Auto Loans. For the complete list, visit Complete Auto Loans’ website.

To help consumers save even more, Complete Auto Loans also offers an online credit score tool that has saved many borrowers thousands of dollars. Upon completing the 60-second car loan application on their website, consumers will be given yet another chance to save thousands of dollars on their loan. For more information, visit Complete Auto Loans website.

About Complete Auto Loans

Complete Auto Loans is a Seattle-based company that is dedicated to helping their customers acquire national car financing. They design and develop customized no credit financing, bad and good credit loans. Voted the best for "Quality Customer Service" and "Best National Service" by thousands of people, their finance experts focus on providing their customers with the following: information and tools available for different loan offers, how to choose the best loan that fits their budget, as well as related eligibility guidelines.

Contact Information

Ketih Eneix

Complete Auto Loans

<http://completeauto loans.com/>

+1 360-631-9441

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.