SAN MATEO, Calif. (PRWEB) August 30, 2018 -- Don't let the chance to win a new vehicle from California Casualty fade in the rear view mirror. The deadline to enter the "Wherever Your Journey Takes You... We'll be There" Sweepstakes is October 5, 2018. One lucky educator will win a new Dodge Journey.

More than 48,000 administrators, instructors and education support professionals have already explored the various insurance solutions available through California Casualty, and have begun their journey at www.winajourney.com.

The initiative is a reminder from California Casualty, provider of the NEA® Auto & Home Insurance Program, about the importance of having the right insurance protection for every stage of life's journey. Not updating policies has left many consumers in a financial bind after a disaster, such as a hurricane, violent tornado or intense wildfire.

Whether they are a new teacher, have a growing family, or an empty nester thinking of retirement, California Casualty has insurance options to meet their unique needs. See how California Casualty provides auto and home insurance designed for an educator's different life-events at <https://mycalcas.com/2018/05/educators-win-dodge-journey/>.

California Casualty has partnered with the NEA Member Benefits to offer auto and home insurance with unique features for educators that include:
