

Man Dies in Motorcycle Crash...And Miraculously Lives to be Reborn

Xulon Press presents the amazing true story of a man's second chance at life.

ORLANDO, Fla. (PRWEB) January 15, 2020 -- Author Pedro Lebron shares his miraculous tale of literal rebirth in Reborn at 36 ($11.49, paperback, 9781630503758; $5.99, e-book, 9781630503765).

After a devastating motorcycle accident, Lebron died and was revived on the way to the hospital. He spent two months in a coma with little hope of being anything more than a vegetable. Now, with God's help, he has been reborn and is beginning anew.

"A tale showing that when you let God drive your life, you will not crash. You may suffer accidents along the way... but with your belief, determination, and focus, and of course God in the driver's seat, your journey will continue," said Lebron.

Pedro Lebron was born in Worcester, MA, but spent a good deal of his life in Puerto Rico before moving to the California he now considers home. He started three small businesses that he grew into successful enterprises before losing everything. Since his accident, he has had to re-learn all the things he used to be able to do, but with God's help he is creating his new normal.
