

Lazydays Leadership Announcement

Change in leadership at Lazydays RV

Tampa, FL (PRWEB) October 17, 2016 -- Lazydays, The RV Authority and world's largest RV dealership, announced that current President and CEO Tim Sheehan will be leaving the company. William P. "Bill" Murnane, current Chairman of the Board, will take over as CEO effective on December 1, 2016 and remain Chairman of the Board.

"I would like to thank the amazing employees at Lazydays RV for a life-changing experience. Everyone works hard towards a common vision focused on the customer. This helped grow the company in so many areas. My goal of positioning this great company for the future has been accomplished." Sheehan said. He went on to say, "Since day one, leaders throughout the RV industry have been so gracious and willing to support us. Thank you all very much."

"The board and I thank Tim for his outstanding leadership," stated Mr. Murnane. "Lazydays RV has made great strides under his guidance and is a much stronger company as a result. Tim will be sorely missed, but he has created a system and structure that is well prepared to handle this transition without disrupting Lazydays great progress. I am excited to become a full-time member of the Lazydays management team and work with its tremendous employees. My primary goal is to help Lazydays become the clear dealership of choice in the rapidly growing RV Industry," commented Murnane.

Mr. Murnane has been Chairman of the Board at Lazydays since December 2009. Mr. Murnane is a Principal at Wayzata Investment Partners LLC and has been with the firm since February 2008. Mr. Murnane was Chairman and CEO at Innovex, Inc. from 1999 to 2008. Mr. Murnane holds an undergraduate degree from New Jersey Institute of Technology and graduate degrees from the University of Maryland and the Harvard Business School.
