(PRWEB) January 11, 2012 -- The Semi Truck Accident Victims Center is the premier advocate for innocent victims of a semi truck, or commercial vehicle accident anywhere in the United States. The group says, "We are urging any family member to call us, if a loved one is an innocent victim of a semi truck, or commercial truck accident anywhere in the United States. Because the enormous size difference between a semi truck, a big rig, or a commercial vehicle, tragically the passenger vehicle occupants lose. If this has happened to you, or a loved one, we want to know about it immediately, and we will start working for you, and your family on the spot." According to the National Traffic Safety Board approximately 500,000 semi truck or commercial truck accidents occur each year in the United States. Tragically, about 5,000 of these accidents result in fatalities. For passenger vehicle drivers, the sad fact is one out of every eight traffic fatalities in the United States involves a semi truck, a big rig, or a commercial truck. The Semi Truck Accident Victims Center says, "It does not matter if the accident happens in Los Angeles, Houston, Miami, Baltimore, or in a small community in South Dakota, our service is the same for an innocent victim, or loved ones of a victim of a semi truck, or commercial vehicle accident, and the quality of our service is without equal, especially for loved ones, or family members of victims." For more information victims, or loved ones of victims of a semi truck, big rig, or commercial truck accidents are encouraged to contact the Semi Truck Accident Victims Center anytime for their unparalleled national service at 866-714-6466, or they can contact the group via their web site at <http://SemiTruckAccidentVictimsCenter.Com>
