(PRWEB) January 13, 2012 -- The Semi Truck Accident Victims Center says, "Approximately 500,000 semi truck or commercial truck accidents occur each year in the United States. Tragically, about 5,000 of these accidents result in fatalities. In fact, one out of every eight traffic fatalities in the United States involves a semi truck, a big rig, or a commercial truck." The Semi Truck Accident Victims Center is the premier US advocate for victims of a passenger vehicle involved with a semi truck, big rig, or commercial vehicle, and they offer instant access to investigators, national caliber personal injury lawyers, and other professionals, you will need immediately after a semi truck, or commercial truck accident involving a passenger vehicle, in any US State. Because of the enormous size difference between a semi truck or a commercial vehicle, and a passenger vehicle, these types of collisions typically end up having horrible results for the occupants in the passenger vehicle. Add in semi truck or commercial driver fatigue or impairment, and these accidents happen very fast, and they are typically really bad. Victims of a semi truck, or commercial truck accident can contact the Semi Truck Accident Victims Center anytime at 866-714-6466, or contact the group via its web site at <http://SemiTruckAccidentVictimsCenter.Com>.

The Semi Truck Accident Victims Center says, "Our biggest worry is always trying to get an immediate response for the innocent victims of an accident involving a semi truck, or commercial vehicle, or their family members." They say, "If an innocent driver, or occupants of a passenger vehicle get involved in a semi truck or commercial vehicle accident anywhere in the US, we will respond instantly. We are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. These types of accidents frequently happen at night, or on weekends, or out in the middle of nowhere, and we are always ready to provide instant help."
