C-Stores & Gas Stations: Add a CarWash and let it pay for itself

C-Store and Gas Station owners that would like to profit from the great revenue stream of a carwash but do not want to put up a large amount of cash now have a great solution. Qlease.com new Car Wash Finance Program for C-Stores and Gas Stations can help make the addition of a Car Wash pay for itself.

(PRWEB) May 26, 2004 -- Using a financial product like an equipment lease for the addition of a Car Wash can allow the revenue generated from the usage of the car wash pay for the monthly payments. With an equipment lease important revenue generating equipment like a car wash can be added with sometime little or no money out of pocket. The utilization of financing is not only a great way to add equipment but can quicken the return on investment seen by business owners.

Getting money for a Car Wash can be a difficult process.
