

Find the Car of Your Dreams at The Toledo Police Vehicle Auction

The Toledo Police Department and Pamela Rose Auction Company LLC will be auctioning off 100+ vehicles on Saturday, June 19th at 11:00 a.m. These vehicles, ranging from a 1975 Suzuki RV90 to a 2003 Dodge Neon, have been seized by the police department, and are now for sale to the highest bidder.

(PRWEB) June 5, 2004 -- Cars, trucks, SUVs and motorcycles will all be auctioned to the highest bidder on Saturday, June 19th at 11:00 a.m. Registration begins at 9:00 a.m. The auction will be held in the City parking lot on the corner of Cherry Street and Spielbusch Avenue in Downtown Toledo.

The vehicles to be auctioned have been abandoned, forfeited, and seized as a result of various police operations. All vehicles are sold "as is." Full payment due day of auction in the form of cash or good check only. No credit cards accepted. If Buyer pays cash, the title will be received immediately. If a check is used to pay for the vehicle, the title will be mailed upon clearing of the check. No vehicles will be started the day of auction.

Pamela Rose is both locally and nationally recognized by the National Auctioneers Association and the Ohio Auctioneers Association. She was the 1998 International Woman's Auctioneer Champion. Pamela and her associates have conducted auctions for the Toledo Police Department for many years, and according to Pamela Rose, this auction has the best lot of cars she has seen. "We are, as always, looking forward to this auction. It is always fun and our customers can get terrific bargains. I am especially looking forward to auctioning off the 2003 black Harley-Davidson Electra Glide motorcycle!" said Ms. Rose.
